We have compiled the best commander pairs if you plan to specialize in Diaochan as your chief commander of choice. Lu Buf want to transform Lu Bu into a powerful offensive and support commander, Diaochan is one of the best epic commanders to pair with. Lu Bu will get a 50% attack bonus and Diaochan will get more healing abilities when paired together. One of the reasons we recommend pairing Diaochan and Lu Bu is because of the massive defensive debuff that the legendary commander provides. This directly affects Diaochan's ability to dish out even more damage because she relies primarily on a normal attack to do the job for her while supporting the troops. Joan of ArcOne from the best epic commanders to pair with is Joan of Arc. If you want to have solid support for a commander couple who can provide superior debuffs/buffs to frontline commanders. Joan of Arc also works with Diaochan because both can lead multiple types of troops. Especially when Diaochan uses a field talent build that allows her to focus more on troops and less barbarians. Joan of Arc, on the other hand, gives massive buffs to all troops who improve their combat effectiveness. Good choice if you want to have additional healing support for a solid PvP commander. AethelflaedAethelflaed is an undisputed legendary commander who will certainly receive some love for Diaochan. She is a very powerful peacekeeping commander that dish out a ton of damage, but lacks a direct damage factor and healing ability. The paired Diaochan with Aethelflaed and combined with a massive experience/injury bonus from the Barbarians. Aethelflaed may last longer on the map, but Diaochan provide healing support that keeps troops from dying during the battle.
